- Undergraduate students may receive this award only once every two years, even if in graduating year. They may not be on internship at the time of the application. They may receive the scholarship twice during their undergraduate degree.
- Graduate students may receive this award only once for each post graduate degree.

Submission requirements:

Student must submit a letter with application, describing:

- Why you deserve this award.
- Your education to date, awards, community services, participation in sports, music or the arts, career aspirations
- Other relevant information (include a discussion of your involvement in the CIM Saskatoon Branch, and/or the mining community, as appropriate. Please omit direct references to your name and/or the name of your parents in this letter).
- Unofficial transcript

Student marks are not the main measure for the scholarship selection, but we require you to submit transcripts (unofficial is acceptable) showing your marks for the 2016-2017 academic year.

This application, and copy of your letter and transcript of marks, must be received by CIM Saskatoon Executives no later than Friday February 2nd, 2018. The application is to be e-mailed to the Branch at cimsaskatoon@gmail.com with the subject line, "Attention Scholarship Committee".

You will be emailed a confirmation-of-receipt of your application. It is your responsibility to follow-up with the CIM Saskatoon Branch, by February 5th at noon, if you did not receive a confirmation by email. After February 5th at noon, entry to the scholarship evaluation process is closed. If your application was not received and you did not follow-up by noon on February 5th, we encourage you to apply in future years.
